

Procedures for Obtaining an Avigation Easement

City of Kenosha, Wisconsin

An Avigation Easement is needed when:*

- Rebuilding an existing single-family residential unit in the Air-2 Overlay District that has been damaged to the extent that its' non-conforming status is lost, or
- New construction of or additions to residential units or overnight lodging facilities are proposed in the Air-3 Overlay District.

*Avigation Easements and development in the Airport Overlay Districts shall be in conformance with all provisions of Section 13 of the Zoning Ordinance of the City of Kenosha, Wisconsin.

Petitioner's Responsibilities:

1. Talk with the City Planning Staff regarding the Avigation Easement.
2. Complete the application letter in the form which is provided on the next page, and submit the original to the Department of City Development along with the $160 review fee. The applicant will be responsible for providing a legal description of the property or portion of the property that is in the Air-2 or Air-3 Overlay District.
3. When the City Attorney has drafted the Avigation Easement, the Department of City Development will return the Avigation Easement to the petitioner, who shall sign the easement and have the signature notarized.
4. Return the signed copy to the Department of City Development, along with all applicable review and recording fees.
5. The Kenosha Municipal Airport Director will sign the Avigation Easement, and the Department of City Development will record the easement with the Kenosha County Register of Deeds.
