

Electronics Recycling

City of Kenosha
Drop-Off Site

1001 50th Street, Kenosha

Current Wisconsin law bans the landfilling or incineration of many household electronic devices. The City of Kenosha Drop-Off Site will take the following household electronics FREE:

- ◆ Computers
- ◆ External Modems
- ◆ Laptops
- ◆ Printers
- ◆ Televisions
- ◆ Copiers
- ◆ FAX Machines
- ◆ Mice
- ◆ Scanners
- ◆ VCRs
- ◆ DVD Players
- ◆ Keyboards
- ◆ Monitors
- ◆ Speakers
- ◆ Video Players

City of Kenosha
Drop-Off Site

1001 50th Street

Tuesday-Friday, 9:30am-5pm
Saturday, 8am-3:30pm

Larger electronic devices, such as televisions, may be scheduled for curbside collection. Contact the City of Kenosha Department of Public Works, 262-653-4050, to schedule the pickup of the item at least one business day prior to your regular garbage collection day.

Goodwill Industries, 6100 75th Street, Kenosha, accepts new or gently used electronics. Best Buy, 7021 120th Avenue, Kenosha, accepts up to three items per household per day, charges $10 for every TV or monitor, and provides a $10 Best Buy gift card good toward a future purchase.

QUESTIONS?

Contact Kenosha Public Works
262-653-4050

