

DDM SUMMER PROGRAMS

INTERNATIONAL MUSEUM DAY & WISCONSIN MUSEUMS WEEK

Annually on May 18th museums around the world celebrate the contributions museums make to their communities. The week surrounding International Museum Day has been declared Wisconsin Museums Week by the Wisconsin Federation of Museums. So get out and explore one or more of the wonderful museums in your community!

"LEGO-SAURUS" briXwerX Legosaur Labs

Join Lego® builders David and John Xandegar in a 30-minute "theme-build" lab. These father and son Lego® builders provide everything you need, plus assistance and some instruction during the labs, to help you create your own "Lego-saurus" dinosaur. Kids are required to create a dinosaur. Please note that participants do not keep their creations. Some creations will be displayed at the Dinosaur Discovery Museum and photos of all creations will be posted on David and John's website: www.mocpages.com/home.php/41856

SATURDAY, JULY 24 • 10 AM-NOON

Dinosaur Discovery Museum

Class #0600539302

$15 ($10 FOM)/family

1 adult per 1-3 children

Join Senior Curator of Education Nancy Mathews on a trek along the Kenosha Lakefront to learn about and look for Silurian fossils. Start at the Dinosaur Discovery Museum for an introduction and to find out about the time period when southeast Wisconsin was covered by a tropical sea and located south of the equator! Families travel to three stops on the Lakefront using their own transportation: Eichelman Park, Kenosha Harbor and Southport Beach. Maps and fossil ID guides provided.

Fossils From the Field
