

Paul V. Ciarelli named Hometown Hero for the Fourth Quarter of 2023

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

January 5, 2023

For further information contact:
Barbara Rangel, KHHC Secretary
625 52nd Street – Room 300
Kenosha, WI 53140
262.653.4000

KENOSHA – The Kenosha Hometown Heroes Commission is pleased to announce Paul V. Ciarelli is the Kenosha Hometown Hero for the Fourth Quarter of 2023. Ciarelli was honored during the January 3, 2024 Common Council meeting.

The Kenosha Hometown Heroes Commission created this program to identify and recognize as Hometown Heroes worthy men and women, who have served or are currently serving in the United States Armed Forces, for their outstanding personal achievements and the positive contributions they make to the Kenosha community. Those honored must be born in, currently reside in, or have previously resided for ten years or more at any time, in the City of Kenosha,

The Fourth Quarter award winner was in the ROTC at the Indiana University of Pennsylvania from September 1974 until May 1975. Ciarelli served in the United States Navy from January 24, 1977 until January 31, 1997, retiring at the rank of Senior Chief Petty Officer (E8).

Ciarelli's notable duty assignments/tours of duty include Senior Enlisted Advisor (Command Senior Chief) Personnel support Activity, Great Lakes Naval Training Center, Field Team Leader, Navy Management Systems Support Office (NAVMASSO) Oceana NAS, VA, Division Officer, S7 Division, USS Theodore Roosevelt, CVN-71, Leading Petty Officer, S7 Division, USS America, CV-66, and Crew, S7 Division, USS Independence, CV-62.

He was awarded the Navy and Marine Corps Commendation Medal (3rd); Joint Meritorious Unity Award; Navy Unit commendation; Navy "E" Ribbon (2nd), Good Conduct Medal (4th); Navy Expeditionary Medal; National Defense Service Medal; Southwest Asia Service Medal (2nd); Sea Service Deployment Ribbon (4th); Kuwait Liberation Medal (Kingdom of Saudi Arabia): Kuwait Liberation Medal (Kuwait); Navy Pistol Marksmanship Ribbon; and Enlisted Surface Warfare.

Ciarelli is a member of the VFW Post 7308, Navy Club Ship 40, and is the Current Correspondent (secretary) of the Forty and Eight, Voiture 410. He has held numerous seats at the American Legion,

City of Kenosha, 625 52nd Street, Room 300, Kenosha, Wisconsin 53140 | T: 262.653.4177 | kkochman@kenosha.org

Post 21, and is one of the first associate members of the Kenosha Area Vietnam Veterans (KAVV) Honor Guard who carry on the work and traditions of the KAVV.

Additionally, Ciarelli volunteers with many organizations. He is in training to become a Hospice Volunteer; develops and maintains numerous veteran related websites; is a member of the Kenosha Garden Railroad Society; served a two year term on the American Legion, Department of Wisconsin's Marketing and Communication Committee; worked with a "Leadership Kenosha" team that contributed a Social Media project to American Legion Post 21; created and presented a "Fundamentals of Information Technology" Class at TAL, Department of Wisconsin Conventions; and currently serves as the American Legion, Department of Wisconsin District 1 Communications Officer.

Ciarelli is tireless in helping other people. He has befriended a 100 year old World War II Navy Veteran (George Peter). This relationship has enriched Ciarelli's life and the life of Mr. Peter.

Cutline for photo below: Hometown Hero award winner Paul Ciarelli (back row, fifth from left), is shown with Kenosha Mayor John Antaramian (back row, third from left), along with family and friends from veterans groups.

