Two of the ships will provide sail-away excursions (separate ticket required) departing from the north side of the harbor. The remaining five ships will be docked along the south harbor for three days of wind, water and song. Festival admission tickets allow you to board the ships docked along the south harbor and explore from bow to stern.

Festival admission also includes hands-on activities in the Pepsi Kids Zone; live entertainment at the Miller Lite Entertainment Stage and more. Stop by the Wisconsin Coastal Management and NOAA Exploration Station to learn more about the ships and the Great Lakes. You may even find a unique treasure at the festival art fair.
