UPDATE

July 6, 2022

Anderail K. Armstrong, a 20-year-old resident of Kenosha, is confirmed to be the deceased person from this incident. Kenosha Police Department is not identifying the other victims from this shooting. Two victims had serious, but non-life-threatening injuries. The remaining two victims were in very serious condition, with life threatening injuries, but have since stabilized.

This investigation remains very active and once again the police are asking for the community that was there, the community that does have information, to step up and cooperate with our investigators. No matter the dispute or disagreement; gun violence is not the answer and cannot be tolerated. Crime Stoppers is anonymous, 262-656-7333 or Detective Bureau 262-605-5203.

###

On July 4, 2022 at about 10:20 PM Kenosha Police responded to the 6300 block of 25th Avenue for a shooting. Police encountered a chaotic scene with obvious evidence of multiple gunshots being fired.
