KENOSHA- On July 8, Sparks Fly opens the 19th season of the Peanut Butter and Jam concert series, presented by the City of Kenosha and Happenings Magazine. Sparks Fly: the Taylor Swift experience will blend a variety of pop country with Taylor Swifts' smash hits for an exciting performance at Veterans Memorial Park on the Meijer Stage, located at 54th Street and Sixth Avenue. The free public concerts take place from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. and 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. every Thursday July 8- August 26.

Beginning on July 8, the Kenosha County Health Department will be on site weekly to offer free COVID-19 vaccines from 5 to 6 p.m. through a mobile clinic. People have the option to choose vaccines manufactured by Pfizer, Moderna or Johnson & Johnson. The Health Department will have all three available each week. They will vaccinate anyone who is eligible, ages 12 and older.

The 2021 season

July 8: Sparks Fly. The Taylor Swift experience, plus a variety of pop country.

July 15: Unity. There's a reason why this Roots, Reggae & World Beat Band is a multiple WAMI winner.

July 22: EZ FM. A quintet of stellar musicians based out of Chicago and Wisconsin, EZ FM is the premiere yacht rock tribute band of the Midwest.

July 29: 7th Heaven. A band that opened for Bon Jovi at Soldier Field and is listed at the Rock 'n Roll Hall of Fame.

Aug. 5: Megan Ruger. Now performing at the Hard Rock Casino in Las Vegas, fans remember Megan from Season 6 of the "The Voice."

Aug. 12: Lil' Ed and the Blues Imperials. A multiple Blues Music Award winner, he has played every major blues festival worldwide.

Aug. 19: Everett Dean Band. Headlining in theaters and casinos, the Everett Dean Band has appeared with some of the biggest names in show business.

Aug. 26: Beyond the Blonde. BTB is Chicago-land's premier tribute to PINK, Gwen Stefani and Lady Gaga.
