Re: Complaint of August 30, 2023

Dear Ms. Molina,

We write this letter to you as the attorneys for and at the request of the Kenosha Police and Fire Commission.

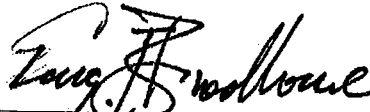

This letter is intended to advise you of the action taken by the Kenosha Police and Fire Commission on your Complaint dated August 30, 2023. The Complaint was investigated, considered in closed session, and considered in open session on January 16, 2024, by the full Commission. At that time, the Complaint was dismissed on the unanimous vote of the Commissioners present.

Generally, the Complaint was dismissed on the grounds that the Commission determined, after evaluating the evidence, that it is more likely than not that no misconduct was committed.

Very truly yours,

BROOKHOUSE & HEMSING LAW OFFICES

Re: Employee Attendance

Each year, we recognize and congratulate those employees who worked the past year without utilizing sick time. This year, a large number of our employees worked more than one year without missing a day of work.

On the attached sheet, we proudly list the names and number of continuous years of perfect attendance for these employees. I offer my congratulations and sincere thanks to each of those who accomplished the goal of perfect attendance for one or more years.
